THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, May 21. to Thurſday, May 28. 1730.

The Small-Pox ſpreading very much in a neighbouring Colony, and it being not unlikely to reach us, 'tis thought the following Account of INOCULATION in that Diſtemper, taken from Chambers's Dictionary, will not be unacceptable to the curious Reader.

IN a Phyſical Senſe, Inoculation is uſed for the Tranſplanting of Diſtempers from one Subject to another, particularly for the Ingraftment of the Small-Pox, which is a new Practice among us, but of ancient Original in the Eaſtern Countries. The beſt Method of performing the Operation is as follows: After the Body is rightly diſpoſed and prepared, by proper Diet and Evacuations, Two ſmall Inciſions are made, one in the muſcular Part of the Arm, about the Place where an Iſſue is uſually cut, and the other in the Leg of the oppoſite Side: Then being provided of a ſmall Quantity, as a Drop or leſs of well-concocted variolous Matter, choſe from the diſtinct or beſt Sort of Puſtules, before the Turn of the Diſtemper, and imbibed by two ſmall Doſſils of Lint; theſe are immediately put into the Inciſions, whilſt the Matter remains warm, and are kept on by a proper Bandage. In a Day or two the Bandages are opened, the Lint thrown away, and only Colewort Leaf applied over the Inciſions. This dreſſing is continued daily. The Inciſions uſually grow ſore, inflame and inlarge of themſelves, and diſcharge Matter more plentifully as the Diſtemper riſes. The Eruption generally appears within eight or ten Days after the Operation, during which Time the Patient is not confined, or obliged to obſerve a very ſtrict Regimen. The Practice ſeems to be uſeful, becauſe the moſt proper Age, the moſt favourable Seaſon of the Year, the moſt regular Method of Preparation, and all poſſible Precautions may here be uſed, according to the Wiſhes of the Patient, his Parents, and Phyſician: Advantages impoſſible to be had when the Diſtemper is caught in the natural Way. It has alſo been conſtantly obſerved, that the beſt Sort of Small-Pox is hereby occaſioned, that the Eruptions are few, the Symptoms light, the Danger next to none, the Recovery eaſy, and that the Patient is equally ſecured from this Diſtemper for the future, as he would be by having gone thro' it in the natural Way.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Madrid, Nov. 21. N. S.

THE late Duke of Wharton, on his Arrival in Spain, went to his Regiment in Old Caſtile, called Hibernia, to which he is Colonel aggregate; and reſides at his Quarters in a ſober, regular, military Way. His Pay is 18 Spaniſh Piſtoles a Month.

Paris, Dec. 7. The Surgeon drew a few Days ago, out of the Wound which the Marquis de Rothelin received 17 Years ago in the Wars, a Piece of the Ring of a ſmall Key which the Ball had forced in before it, ſo that it is now hoped his Wound will be perfectly healed. We learn from Blois that a Woman was lately delivered there of 3 Girls and a Boy, which were baptized the 23d paſt, and that all 4 are in good Health. Some Days ago a Fire broke out at Vendenere, a large Town in Compeigne which burnt 40 Houſes, and the Inhabitants thereof ſaved not the leaſt of their Effects.

Dec. 24. In the extraordinary Aſſembly of the Sorbonne the 15th Inſtant, the Deputies made their Report of the Articles agreed to among themſelves, which were approved of by the Doctors aſſembled. The 3d Article orders all the Doctors now at Paris, or in its Juriſdiction, to accept the Conſtitution in 2 Months, and in 4 thoſe out of its Juriſdiction. The 4th Article excludes from the Faculty of Doctors, who ſhall not accept the Conſtitution within the Time preſcribed. By the 5th, the Faculty accepts de Novo, as far as is neceſſary, and without Prejudice to their former Acceptation of the Conſtitution, as a poſitive Judgment of the Univerſal Church. The 6th impotts, that they will not, for the future, receive any Batchelor, or Licentiate, nor any Doctor, before he has accepted the Conſtitution, Viva Voce.

Cadiz, Dec. 27. From the 31ſt of December 1728, to this Day incluſive, have arrived 3 Almains, 4 Portugueſe, 146 French, 1 Genoeſe, 1 Venetian, 1 Swede, 1 Dane, 10 Hamburghers, 59 Dutch, and 247 Britiſh Ships. The Departure of the Flota, at the Requeſt of the Merchants, will be deferred till April.

Rome, Dec. 31. Father Franciſco, a Prieſt, who died ſome Time ſince in the Convent of Ara Cœli, having the Reputation of a Saint, God (they ſay) has wrought Miracles in favour of his Servant, by 3 ſurprizing Accidents, which happened three Days ago before the Tomb wherein the Corps of the Prieſt is repoſited, which remains as entire and as freſh coloured, as if he was but juſt dead. A Woman poſſeſſed of the Devil, was delivered from it: A dumb Woman recovered her Speech; and a Child that could not come into the World without occaſioning the Mother's Death, was brought forth without any bad Conſequence.

Vienna, Jan. 7. On the 5th the Emperor held a Council of State: The ſame Day his Imperial Majeſty received a Courier from Count Kinski, his Miniſter at the Court of London, who writes, that his Britannick Majeſty had deſired him to aſſure his Imperial Majeſty of his moſt ſincere and perfect Friendſhip, and who has ſent a Copy of the Articles of the Seville Treaty, which had been communicated to him: Soon after this the Lord Waldegrave delivered to the Emperor, 2 Letters, which he had received from London for his Imperial Majeſty, one of them written with the King's own Hand, and the other by that of the Queen, wherein their Majeſties, in a very agreeable Manner, wiſh the Emperor and the Empreſs a happy New-Year; and it is aſſured, that his Britannick Majeſty declares in his Letter, that it never was his Deſign to introduce the Infante Don Carlos into Italy by Force of Arms, but by pacifick and amicable Means. This News has well nigh ſtifled the Rumour of an approaching Rupture in Italy; the rather, becauſe Count Kinski, the Emperor's Embaſſador in France, has ſent to acquaint the the Court, th[illegible] Cardinal de Fleury had given him the ſame Aſſuran[illegible]

The Jews having lent the Emperor 400,000 Florins, [illegible]s ſaid the Edict publiſhed two Years ago in Bohemia, importing that none but the eldeſt Sons of Jews ſhould be permitted to marry, will be revoked: Whereupon there has been found ſtuck upon the Gate of a certain great Miniſter, who is ſuppoſed to favour that Deſign, a Paper with theſe Words written upon it, Hic non habitat Jeſus Nazarenus, ſed Rex Judæorum: Here lives not Jeſus of Nazareth, but the King of the Jews.

Marſeilles, Jan. 18. We learn from Algier, that the Dey dares not ſtir out of his Houſe, and that it is judged he will not long ſurvive, on Account of the Hatred which the People have to him for delivering up 2 Dutch Ships. with very great Sums of Money on board them, which had been brought in by their Cruizers; which Reſtitution was principally owing to one Logie a Native of Scotland, who, ever ſince the Treaty concluded between thoſe People and Sweden, has reſided at Algier as Swediſh Conſul, and from the Death of the Engliſh Conſul aſſumed that Title alſo: But it is believed if the Dey falls, a Rupture with Holland will immediately enſue. Our American Fiſhery thrives; this Year it has proved better than uſual; above 120,000 Quintals of Fiſh have already been brought from thence to this City this Seaſon. We have had very tempeſtuous Weather, by which ſeveral Ships have been loſt. Four Ships with Corn from the Levant for this Port foundered at Sea. Laſt Week, a Ship of about 300 Tons, richly laden, bound from hence to Havre, ſunk about 10 Leagues from this Port; and another Ship, with a very conſiderable Cargo from this Port, was lately loſt going into the River of Nantz. A Ship of about 400 Hundred Tons from Scanderoon, worth about 250,000 Livres was burnt by Accident at our Quarentine Iſland: She had luckily diſcharged about 60 Bales of Silk into the Lazeretto.

Hague, Jan. 20. This Day the Deputies of the Province of Utrecht brought to the States General their Ratification of their Acceſſion to the Treaty of Seville.

Jan 23. The Conſent of the Province of Groningen to the Acceſſion to the Treaty of Seville, was tranſmitted hither yeſterday as was expected; and this Day the Concluſion was taken in the Aſſembly of the States General for their Ratification of it.

LONDON, Dec. 20.

On Saturday laſt we hear the Governors of Bethlehem Hoſpital received 500 l. from an unknown Hand for the Incurables of that Hoſpital.

Jan. 10. On Saturday a Proclamation was publiſhed, requiring Paſſes formerly granted to Ships and Veſſels trading in the Way of Cruziers belonging to the Government on the Coaſt of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Paſſes of different Forms to be iſſued.

London, Jan. 24. Laſt Saturday between 6 and 7 o' Clock in the Evening, a Fire broke out in the middle of the Shop of Mr. Winniat, a Diſtiller, at the Corner of Featherſtone Buildings in Holbourn, occaſioned by a lighted Candle's falling into a Cask of hot Spirits, which immediately burſt, and ran about the Shop. Mr. Winniat was in his Compting-houſe, which was juſt within the Shop-door, and went out without Damage. His Wife was in Hampſhire. The Maid-Servant and Mr. Winniat's Son, about ſix Years of Age, were in the Kitchen up one pair of Stairs. The Apprentice was backward with Mrs. Benwen, a Widow, to weigh her ſome Tobacco; and a Man Servant was attending the Still. This laſt Perſon ſeeing it flame ſo violently, and thinking it impoſſible to get out forwards, broke open the Back-Door; but while he was ſo doing, Mrs. Benwen attempted to go thro' the Shop and Flames, and fell down upon her Breaſt in the middle of them; whereupon he dragged her out, and threw her, and then himſelf, into the Kennel to extinguiſh the Flames that were about them, but both were burnt very miſerably. The Flames in a very few Minutes catched hold of the Stairs, which hindered the Maid and Child from getting out. The Widow Coolin's, an Apothecary's, the next Houſe, was very much damaged, and a great many of her Goods were burnt. It continued burning from the Time abovementioned till about eight o' Clock, when it was happily brought under, thro' the Aſſiſtance of ſeveral Engines, and the Diligence of the Firemen. Mrs. Benwen was carried home that Night, and continued in great Agonies and Pains till Monday Morning, when ſhe expired. The Man who was burnt in dragging her out of the Flames, is in a fair Way of doing well. Mr. Winniat's and the Widow Coolin's Goods were neither of them inſured, and Mrs. Coolin loſt a Diamond Ring by the removing of her Goods, worth upwards of 100 l. Mrs. Coolin had that very Day agreed with an Apothecary for all her Stock in Trade, and he was to have paid the Money for the ſame, and entered on the Premiſſes as on Tueſday laſt; but this unhappy Accident prevents her making good her ſaid Engagement. A Fireman was thrown down by the Fall of a Stack of Chimneys, and had both his Thighs broke, and was very much bruiſed in the Head, ſo that 'tis thought he can't recover. On Monday ſeveral Perſons were employed in digging among the Ruins, when Part of the Bodies of Mr. Winniat's Child, Apprentice, and Servant Maid were found. Mr. Winniat's Loſs by the ſaid Fire is computed to be 2000 l. and upwards.

Jan. 24. James Dalton (mentioned in our Gazette No. 70.) at the Seſſions in the Old Baily, was ſentenced, for ſtopping Dr. Mead with Intent to rob him, to pay a Fine of 40 Marks, to ſuffer 3 Years Impriſonment, and to give Security for his Good Behaviour, 7 Years more. He behaved himſelf with a great Deal of Inſolence while the Court were paſſing Sentence on him, and threatned to do Murder before long; whereupon he was ordered to have his Hands tied while in the Court, and to be kept three Years in one of the Cells belonging to Newgate. When that Part of his Sentence was pronounced of his Fine, he replied, Give me a Receipt for it, and I'll pay you now.

About the ſame time a Gentleman-like Man coming to the Old Bailey to ask for one Finch, a Boy who was a Priſoner there, James Dalton pulled out a Penknife and ſtabbed him thro' the Cheek.

We hear that his Majeſty's Ship the Argyle, Capt. Roberts Commander, is appointed to carry over the Preſent which his Britannick Majeſty ſends to the Emperor of Morocco; as alſo the Heads of the New Mediterranean Paſſes, according to the New Model.

The Rev. Mr. Harriſon (mentioned formerly in our Gazette) who lately conformed to the Church of England, is preſented to the Vicarage of Earls Barton in the County of Northampton and Dioceſe of Peterborough.

Several young Diſſenting Miniſters (having lately conformed to the Church of England) were on Sunday the 21ſt of December laſt ordained by the Biſhop of London at St. James's Church; among whom were the Rev. Mr. John Myonet, and Mr. Benjamin Owen.

On

On Monday Night a Woman in Carrier's-ſtreet St Giles's, who was but five Months gone with Child, was brought to Bed of a Boy, which was chriſtened Yeſterday at the Sardinian Ambaſſador's Chapel in Lincoln's-Inn Fields, and continued in ſeeming Health on Tueſday Night laſt, receiving Syrup of Violets for Nouriſhment.

It is wrote from Deal, that a Mutiny had been on board the Derby, Capt. Fitzhugh, in the Downs bound for Eaſt-India. The Captain being confined to his Cabin by a violent Fit of the Gout, the chief Mate obſerved that ſeveral of the Men were very ſurly, and caballing together, neglected their Duty; and ſeeing many of them got together in the fore Part of the Ship, he went to them to enquire into the Cauſe; but they immediately knocked him down, and it is probable would have killed him, had not the other Officers, &c. armed themſelves and gone to his Aſſiſtance, when they ſoon overcame them, and ſearching them, they found a round Robin, ſigned by about 25, of whom 3, apprehended to be the moſt forward, were ſent on Shore to Deal, and put in Priſon; the other expreſſing great Sorrow for their Crime, and promiſing to be orderly, were to be kept on board (but pinioned) till they heard from London what was proper to be done in this Affair. The Grievance they complained of was, that they had not a ſufficient Allowance of Fleſh, altho' they had been allowed 6 Pounds per Day to a Meſs of 4 Men. A Round Robin is a Name given by Seamen to an Inſtrument on which they ſign their Names round a Circle, to prevent the Ringleader being diſcovered by it if found; and in the Circle is a ſolemn Agreement of ſtanding by each other.

Feb. 26. Laſt Night his Grace the Archb. of Canterbury lay at the Point of Death, at his Palace at Lambeth.

At the Court of St. JAMES's the 21*ſt of* Febr. 1729.

PRESENT

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Lords of the Committee of Council did this Day preſent to his Majeſty at this Board, Draughts of Inſtructions for all his Majeſty's Governors in America, ſtrictly enjoining them for the future not to ſeize or appropriate to their own Uſe, any Part or Share of the Produce of Whales that ſhall be caught on the Coaſts of their reſpective Governments, either upon the Pretence of their being Royal Fiſh, or any other whatſoever, nor to give any Manner of Diſcouragement to the Fiſhery of his Majeſty's Subjects, but on the contrary to encourage the ſame to the utmoſt of their Power; his Majeſty in Council was pleaſed to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, That his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſties Principal Secretaries of State, do cauſe Inſtructions to be prepared agreeable to the ſaid Draughts, for his Majeſty's Royal Signature. Ja. Vernon.

March 5. On Monday (being the Celebration of her Majeſty's Birth-day at Court) the New-England Merchants (being above 80 in Number) gave a magnificent Entertainment to his Majeſty's Governor of New-England, Jonathan Belcher, Eſq: and there were preſent ſeveral Lords of Trade, Mr. Shute late Governor of New-England, Mr. Johnſon of South, and Mr. Burrington of North Carolina. After Dinner were drank the Healths of their Majeſties, the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Princeſſes, the Glorious Memory of K. William, Q. Mary, and K. George I. Lord Chancellor, Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Townſhend, Sir Rob. Walpole, the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, with the reſt of the King's Miniſters, the Lords of the Admiralty and Lords of Trade, with a great Number of other Loyal Healths; and during the Entertainment, there was a Fine Concert of Muſick.

March 13. We hear that a great Number of Palatine Families have lately propoſed to the Lords of Trade to go to ſettle in South-Carolina, ſo that that Province in a ſhort Time will, in all likelihood, be in a flouriſhing Condition; that delightful Country affording all the Neceſſaries of Life, and wanting only People to cultivate it.

We hear, that the Rev. Dr Croxall, (who preached before the Houſe of Commons on the 30th of January laſt, on theſe Words, Take away the Wicked from before the King, and his Throne ſhall be eſtabliſhed in Righteouſneſs) is ſtruck off the Liſt of his Majeſty's Chaplains.

By the Holland Mail (juſt arrived) we learn, it has been reſolved by the new Empreſs of Ruſſia in Council, that no Alterations ſhall be made in the Engagements which her Predeceſſors had concluded with the Emperor and other Foreign Powers.

We hear from Paris, That Pope Benedict 13. died the 21ſt of laſt Month, at 4 o' Clock in the Afternoon. His Holineſs had held a Conſiſtory the 8th of February, wherein he made Signor Alamanno Salviati, who was Nuncio Extraordinary in France in 1708, a Cardinal.

The following Noblemen took their Places in the Houſe of Peers this Seſſion of Parliament, ſome by the Deaths of their Fathers and other Relations, ſome by being of Age, and others by Patent, &c. viz. William, Duke of Devonſhire; Wriotheſly, Duke of Bedford; Peregrine, Duke of Leeds; Daniel, Earl of Winchelſea and Nottingham; Sackville, Earl of Thanet; Charles, Earl of Sunderland; Baptiſt, Earl of Gainsborough; Henry, Earl Ferrers; James, Earl of Waldegrave; Francis, Lord Guildford; William, Lord Harrington; the Lord Lovelace; and Dr. Robert Clavering, as Biſhop of Peterborough; and Dr. John Harris, as Biſhop of Llandaff.

Cuſtom-Houſe, New-York, May 25. Inward Entries. Peare from Briſtol, Bryant from London, Ware from Jamaica and St. Lucia, Pinel from Sardinia to New-England forced hither by Diſtreſs. Outward Entries, None.

Cleared for Departure. Kirſted and Hunt to Jamaica.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.

From Amboy we have the following ADDRESS of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Province of New-Jerſey, in Anſwer to His Excellency their Governour's Speech of the 7th Inſtant.

To His Excellency John Montgomerie, Eſq; Captain General and Governour in Chief of New-Jerſey, New-York, and Territories thereon depending, in America. and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, &c.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Province of New-Jerſey in General Aſſembly convened, gladly embrace the Opportunity given us of expreſſing our Fidelity, Loyalty and Gratitude to the beſt of Kings. His Majeſty's Care to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of His Subjects, and His Concern for His remoteſt Dominions are conſpicuous; His directing Your Excellency to have a ſtrict Regard for all our Rights and Privileges, His having fully inſtructed You to concur with us in every Thing that is for the Good and Advantage of the Province, are repeated Inſtances of His Royal Goodneſs: And as Your Excellency has been pleaſed to intimate, You have the Proſperity of this Province ſincerely at Heart, it leaves us no room to doubt but that You will exert the Powers and Authorities repoſed in You as often as the publick Good ſhall require; and naturally excites us on our Part to declare, that we, as in Duty and Gratitude bound, are equally ready and willing to Support His Majeſty's Government, by ſettling upon Him a Revenue in as ample a Manner, and for as long a Time as former Aſſemblies have given to His Predeceſſors.

We thank Your Excellency for the wholſome Advice You are pleaſed to beſtow upon us, and are very ſenſible, that Zeal without Temper is pernicious to human Society; but we hope on all Occaſions we ſhall behave our ſelves as becomes the Repreſentatives of this Province; and we are entirely of Your Excellency's Opinion, that it will be the moſt effectual way of ſerving our Country, and of recommending our ſelves to His Majeſty's Royal Favour.

By Order of the Houſe,

J. KINSEY, Jun. Speaker.

Divers of the Members of this Aſſembly being of the People called Quakers, concur to the Matter and Subſtance of this Addreſs, but have ſome Exceptions to the Stile.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

'THE Loyalty you expreſs to the King, gives me 'the greateſt Satisfaction. You may depend upon 'His Majeſty's conſtant Care to promote your Eaſe and 'Welfare; and I take this Opportunity of aſſuring you, 'that as it is my Duty, ſo I ſhall think it my particular 'Happineſs to advance the Intereſt and Proſperity of the 'Province.

J. MONTGOMERIE.

From Burlington we hear, that Yeſterday at a Meeting of the Freeholders and others at the Court-houſe in that Town, a Petition was ſign'd to be preſented to the Aſſembly, praying an Act to diſcourage Pedlars, &c.

On the 9th Inſtant, about 4 o'Clock in the Morning, Noah Dubois, of the Townſhip of Providence, in this County, kill'd himſelf in the following Manner. He took a Gun, charg'd with Powder and Ball, cock'd it, and faſten'd a String from the Trigger to a Rail in his Fence; then drawing the Gun with the Muzzle toward his Breaſt, it went off and ſhot him dead upon the Spot. The Motives that induc'd him to this Action are not publickly known.
